BASEBALL TEAM LOSES TWICE IN WEEK-END GAMES

McBride's Men Slump in Contests with Union and Rochester

TEAM READY FOR FINAL GAME

Will Meet Albany Teachers Here This Week

Rested from its strenuous campaign of last week when games were played with Colgate, Union and Rochester, the Hamilton baseball team winds up its season in a contest with Albany State Teachers' College. McBride's crew is determined to shake off the losing streak which has now run up to six straight defeats and will bend every effort to turn in a win Thursday.

There is still considerable doubt as to which pitcher McBride will start against the Teachers. Both Knox and Donohue started games last week and will probably be on hand for relief duty only. Either Martin or Hassard will get the call Thursday with Chatfield behind the bat.

Hamilton dropped a rather loosely fielded contest to Union at Schenectady last Friday in the final out of town contest of the season. The final score was 7-4 with the Garnet on the long end of the count. Donohue pitched for Hamilton, and although he was touched for a total of 10 hits, put up a good brand of ball.

Maybe did the hurling for the winners and let down the Hamilton batters with six scattered hits, four of which were accounted for by Courteau, who had a perfect day at the plate. Ripton and Haber did most of the hitting for Union, each of them making three safe blows.

Hamilton lost a free hitting, loosely fielded contest to Rochester Saturday. McBride sent Knox to the mound but the portsider was not in his best form. He seemed tired from his effort against Colgate Wednesday, followed by the Union game in which he performed in the outfield.

The Hamilton fielding was very ragged, a total of five errors being made. In the seventh inning, Rochester sent 14 batters to the plate, getting a total of eight hits and nine runs, safely sewing up the decision.

WAS LOS TAPS THREE MEN FOR NEXT YEAR

Was Los, honorary junior society, tapped its first two men on Thursday and Saturday of last week, honoring Robert G. Fisher of Rochester and William B. Church of Washington, D. C In picking these two men, Was Los chose two of the most popular members of the sophomore class.

Robert Fisher, chosen first man, is a member of the D. T. Club, has starred on the soccer team for two seasons, and played on his freshman basketball and baseball teams. It is in soccer that "Bob" has attained his greatest fame. His position is halfback, where he has played a consistently brilliant game for two seasons. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon. "Bill" Church, chosen second man, is shining as shortstop on the baseball team, where he has played for two years. He also played on his freshman basketball team. Church is a member of the Honor Court, of the D. T. Club, and of Sigma Phi.

Robert Reed, Buffalo, was tapped Monday morning. Reed, the third man to be chosen by Was Los, is president of the sophomore class and a member of the tennis team. He was on the freshman basketball squad last year. He is also a member of Sigma Phi.

The dramatic interpretation class, under the direction of Professor Fancher, presented two short plays, a pantomime, and a one act play, in the Little Theater last evening, in completion of the semester's work. Admission was by invitation only .

The parts for the unusual pantomime, The Shepherd in the Distance, were taken as follows: Shepherd in the Distance, Dold; Princess, Hirsheimer; Her Attendants, Gray and MacMartin; Wazier, Thomas; Vizier, Patrick; Gurry Wurry, Brink; Dancing Goat, Mulligan; Nubian, Smith; Maker of Sounds, McGregor.

"The Woman Who Was Acquitted" a one-act play, was cast as follows: Doctor, Goodwin; The Judge, G. Tyler; Roblot, Dold; and McGregor a Clerk, and Dold an Attorney.

LATIN PLAY SCORES TRIENNIAL SUCCESS

Pitcher Stars in Leading Role Before Large Crowd

"Aulularia", the triennial Latin play which is Hamilton's contribution to the creation of a stimulus for interest in classical literature, was presented by members of the Latin Club in Soper Gymnasium Friday evening. The comedy by Plautus brought a large crowd of professors, guests, and undergraduates to the Hill.

"The Pot of Gold," which is the English translation of the Latin title, dealt with the humorous complications into which Euclio, the old miser, and his daughter are introduced. As if it were not enough that the aged man should be troubled with worries about the gold which he as discovered and which he is in fear of losing, problems in the arrangements for the marriage of his daughter arise. A large amount of dramatic "horse-play," of semi-vulgar conversation, and a variety of amusing "make-ups" make this play one of the most amusing things presented on the Hill for a long time.

S. M. Pitcher, '28, in the leading role, that of the suspicious, sensitive, old miser, who hobbles around, stooped over his stick, displayed talent in all five of the acts of the entertainment. His marked anxiety when he believes he is being robbed, his pitiable plight when it is shown why his daughter cannot marry the man he has chosen, and his equally great joy over the return of his pot of wealth, offered opportunities for real acting which Pitcher made the most of. To memorize thousands of words in an ancient language was a feat in itself worthy of the highest commendation.

Credit must be given each of the accompanying actors who helped make the play a success. The prologue was given by Euclio's Household God, enacted by Schiro, '26. Thomas, '27, in the person of Staphyla, a woman, did his part to perfection. The part of Eunomia, a Roman matron, was well filled by Lonsdale, '26. Roberts, '28, took the characterization of Megadorus. Among the servants and cooks who caused a great deal of laughter and merriment were Schiro, '26, Wylie, '28, and Thomas, '27. Hoyt, '27, as the irresponsible, inquisitive attendant of Lyconides and as a delightful thief, scored a success. Daymont, '26, as Lyconides, the handsome and dashing young hero of the plot, presented a careful, well-balanced piece of work. Musical patter arranged for wind instruments playing during the most serious scenes added a pleasant flavor to the whole production. Among other servants and musicians were MacLean, '29, Hutchens, '26, Hollandt, '29, Chase, '26, and Goodwin, '27.

Much of the credit for the success of the performance is due Professors C. K. Chase and D. B. Durham, who directed the production. The Latin Department wishes to thank the Charlatans for the use of stage equipment and also Albert Dold, '27, and Eben Brink, '27, who had charge of the stage and electrical management.

It is unfortunate that the play will be unable to go on the road but Hamilton has a tradition of which to be proud, the presentation every three years of a drama entirely in Latin.

Search of Hamiltonian and Life Reveals Hamilton Track Records

Majority of Records Established in Recent Years—Watson Thompson, '23, Leads with Records in Half-mile, Mile, and Two Mile—Brockway and Van Vleet Set New Marks.

A search through Hamiltonians and issues of Hamilton Life through past years has brought to light many interesting facts about Hamilton track records during the past half century.

With the exception of the quarter-mile, the high hurdles, the pole vault, and the hammer throw, all the records have been established in the other events during the last six or seven years.

Up until 1922 most of the records were held by men from classes ranging from '99 to '15. In '22, however, a sudden record-breaking frenzy was started by Watson Thompson, "Alec" Alison, and a few others. In practically every meet during that year the members of the track team broke from three to four records a day, setting a new record one meet and breaking it the next.

Thompson, '23, leads the list in the number of records held, holding the mark in the half-mile, mile and two mile, with records that future generations of students will have a hard time beating. Until last year Alison ranked second in the list, holding records in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. LeFever cracked the 220 mark, bettering it by 1-10 seconds and succeeded in equalling the record of 9 9-10 seconds in the century.

The two most recent records were established in the meet with Middlebury last Saturday. Van Vleet's toss of 39 feet 10 inches in the 16 pound shot put event bettered the old record established by him last year by more than 2½ feet. Brockway broke the second record of the day by hurling the discus 119 feet, a matter of two feet better than the best record which can be discovered from the material at hand.

The records are:

Track Events

100 yard dash, 9.9 sec., Alison, '24; LeFever, '27.

220 yard dash, 21.9 sec., LeFever, '27.

440 yard dash, 49 4-5 sec., Lee, '15.

880 yard dash, 1 min., 56 1-5 sec., Thompson, '23.

Two Mile Run, 9 min., 37 2-5 sec., Thompson, '23.

*120 Yard High Hurdles, 15 1-4 sec., Colson, '11.

220 Yard Low Hurdles, 26 sec., Pope, '22.

SENIOR BALL WILL BE HELD FRIDAY, JUNE 1

According to the plans formulated by the committee in charge of the affair, Senior Ball this year will be held in the gymnasium Friday evening, June 11, directly after the Charatans performance of "Is Zat So!"

From Chairman Ricketts' report the Ball this year is to be one of the best ever held. The Isle O' Blues Orchestra has been secured for the occasion after a great deal of effort on the part of the committee, so that good music can be promised for the occasion. At some time or other during the evening's festivities refreshments will be served in Commons.

Although nothing definite has been decided upon in the way of decorations because of the uncertainty of the financial status of the Ball, the committee promises that the gym will be fittingly decorated for such an event.

Tickets for the Ball will be placed on sale early this next week and may be purchased from any member of the committee, which includes in addition to Ricketts, Freeman, Michels and Taylor.

The price of the tickets will remain at $5 until Wednesday, June 9, when the cost will be advanced $1. This change is necessary because the committee must know beforehand how many are to be fed. The men in charge of the Senior Ball urge all those who expect to attend to purchase their tickets at the earliest possible moment.

—There will be no issue of Life during the exam period. The annual Commencement issue will be published Saturday, June 12.

COUNCIL AND COLLEGE WILL MEET THIS WEEK

On Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be a meeting of the Executive Council in preparation for the college meeting of Saturday, the 29th. Among the matters to be brought up will be the election of athletic managers and assistants for the coming year.

The meeting of the undergraduate body will be held at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. This will be the final college meeting for the present scholastic year. Letters will be awarded to men who have earned them in the spring sports: baseball, track, and tennis. The members of the Honor Court for next year will be announced at this meeting.

Announcement of the men picked for manager of Charlatans and assistant manager of the Musical Clubs for the coming year will also be made on Saturday. The results of the election of athletic managers made at the executive council meeting on Thursday will be made public at the college-meeting Saturday. The men who have been working throughout the year for these positions are Pierson, Fanning, Walker, Corby, Moore, Loomis, Jones, Stook, McKee, Hays, Clark, and Bannerman, all of the class of '28. There will probably be some discussion at this meeting of the present system by which men compete for these athletic managerships.

—Drawing of rooms for next year will be held in the Bursar's office on Thursday, May 27.

—All election cards for next year's courses are due at the office Wednesday, May 26.

GOODWIN ELECTED NEW CHARLATANS' PRESIDENT

At a meeting held last Friday morning, the Charlatans elected officers for the coming year. As a result of his three years' work with the Charlatans, Coburn P. Goodwin, '27, was elected President. He is playing one of the most important roles in "Is Zat So" and has been Vice-President this year. Palmer Cutter, '29, who played in "A Night in an Inn", was elected Custodian. He is also in the cast of "Is Zat So." As there were no sophomores eligible, no vice-president was elected. The Executive Committee, composed of Prof. Paul A. Fancher, coach; Prof. Robert B. Rudd, faculty advisor; C. P. Goodwin, '27, president; P. C. Sayres, '27; C. E. Olmsted, '27, was elected at this time.

Upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, C. E. Olmsted, '27, and E. C. Brink, '27, were awarded the Charlatan key.

RUTGERS AND STEVENS DEFEAT TENNIS TEAM

Buff and Blue Beaten 6-0 and 7-1 on Week-end Trip

The Buff and Blue tennis team spent a very unprofitable week-end in New Brunswick and Hoboken, N. J., dropping matches to both Rutgers and Stevens Tech. Although the two matches brought forth some of the hardest fought tilts and biggest scores of the season, one match was the sum total of the victories credited to the Hamilton racketeers. The home team lost to Rutgers on Friday to the tune of 6-0, very obviously showing the result of its hard trip. On Saturday the net men played in much improved form against the strong Stevens team, but again were forced to take the small end of the score, this time registering a 7-1 defeat. Hamilton received none of the breaks in the way of carrying off close contests, almost every man carrying his opponent to long, bitterly-fought matches before acknowledging defeat.

At New Brunswick on Friday, against the powerful Rutgers net team, Hamilton played in the poorest form of the year, plainly showing the effects of their trip and of the unfamiliar conditions. An unfortunate circumstance occurred which probably cost Hamilton one match on their side of the ledger, when the Rutgers man who was to play Reed was suddenly unable to show up, so that but four singles matches were played. The Hamilton men were invariably slow in warming up to their task, under the strange conditions, and it was not until the doubles that they showed anything like their true form.

The next day at Hoboken, Hamilton gave a very much better showing, losing only after the greatest run of deuce sets and three set mathes which the team had played this year. As usual, the doubles teams showed up to the best advantage, Davenport and McGregor making a hard fight for victory, and Ballard and Reed winning their match after a long, hard struggle, 7-5, 6-8, 7-5.

With the final matches of the schedule facing them this week, against their two biggest rivals, Colgate and Union, the men are determined to close their season with two wins. The match with Colgate will be played at Hamilton on Tuesday, while the tennis team will close the season at home on Saturday against the Garnet.

MC KINNEY SPEAKERS TO DEBATE "PROHIBITION"

Wednesday evening the McKinney Prize speakers will debate in the Chapel at 8 o'clock on the question of "Prohibition."

The general subject for the debate, "Prohibition," was announced about the first of April. The exact wording of the proposition will not be announced until Tuesday, 24 hours before the debate, at which time sides will also be cohsen. The order of speakers will be determined by lot at the time of the debate.

The contestants, Bohn, Chase, Chretien, Hutchens, Schiro, and Skinner, are the six men whose standing has been highest in Public Speaking 13-17 inclusive. The speakers are each allowed 10 minutes for their advance speeches and five minutes for their rebuttal speeches. The rules are that no notes are to be used in advance speeches, and only notes made during the debate are to be used in rebuttal.

The judges will be Dr. Walter C. Gibson, '90, of Utica, O. Gregory Burns, '14, of Clinton, Willett B. Sherwood, '15, of Utica, Barton D. Miller, '19, of Utica, and William J. Woods, '22, of Clinton.

A foundation of $1,500 by the late Charles McKinney of Binghamton, furnishes two prizes of $50 and $25 for the two seniors who are judged the best in extemporaneous debate.

SIX COLLEGES TO SEND TEAMS HERE SATURDAY

First Annual Track Meet of New York State Conference Scheduled

CUPS AND MEDALS PROVIDED

Fourteen Events Carded in Addition to Relay Race

On Saturday the first annual New York State Conference track meet will be held here. In addition to the Buff and Blue, Rochester, Alfred, St. Lawrence, Niagara, and St. Bonaventure will be represented. Clarkson, Hobart and the University of Buffalo, which are also members of the conference will not send teams this year.

The New York State Conference was organized last fall with the purpose of uniting the smaller colleges of this state in an intercollegiate league similar to the famous Western Conference.

A. I. Prettyman, director of athletics here, is chairman of the track committee of the conference. At a meeting held on October 26 in Rochester he offered the conference the facilities of Hamilton for the first track meeting and the offer was unanimously accepted. Mr. Prettyman feels that it is quite an honor for Hamilton to be selected for this meet as this is the first event of the kind that the conference has endeavored to run. It is expected that over a hundred athletes from the various colleges will be entertained on the Hill over the weekend.

Silver cups will be awarded the team gaining the most points in all events, and the team winning the relay race. A gold medal will be given to each man winning a first place.

The meet will, of course, be the last event on the program of the spring's athletic activities. Coach Carroll is planning to hold stiff workouts during the week to get the Buff and Blue in the best possible condition. St. Lawrence and Rochester will probably bring some of the strongest teams. All of the regular events will be held, including the 100, 220, 440 and 880 yard dashes, the mile and two mile runs, the low and high hurdles, and the relay. The field events will be the shot, discus, javelin, high jump, broad jump, and pole vault.

CLASSES WILL COMPETE IN ANNUAL SING TONIGHT

The annual interclass sing will be held Tuesday at 9 o'clock, following the fraternity meetings. All of the classes have been holding practices throughout the past week and unusually good singing should be the result. Each class will sing "We Come to Hang Our Banners." The Seniors have selected as their special song, "Student Land," a selection used very successfully by the Glee Club during the year. The Juniors will sing "In Those Dear Old College Days," the Sophomores "Bright Hamilton," and the Freshmen, "Gather Close, Ye Boys and Men."

The particular feature of this year's contest will be the awarding of a cup to the class which in the opinion of the judges does the best work. Prof. and Mrs. Fancher have donated the cup to the college and it will have ample space for the engraving of the numerals of the winning classes for years to come. Announcement of the donation of the cup was made in chapel last Friday. Prof. Fancher declared that interclass singing should be one of Hamilton's finest traditions and expressed the hope that the cup would serve as an added stimulus for the preservation of this tradition in the future.

The committee which will judge the contest will include Prof. Fancher, "Wally" Johnson and Dean Saunders.

THE ELECTION OF MANAGERS

This week marks the completion of the current competition for athletic managers. At the college meeting Saturday evening announcement will be made of the results of this competition and each of the dozen or so ass-managers will be transported to the seventh heaven of delight or the deepest slough of despondency according to his own standing in the final rating.

It is not our purpose to eulogize the present group of ass-managers. They have been through one of the longest and hardest competitions in college. Unfortunately, however, those who fail to win managerships will be unable to seek their reward elsewhere. For them the bitter, gruelling hours of chasing balls, carrying equipment, ushering at games, and running errands will have proved futile. And so it becomes doubly important that the seven best candidates receive the vacant managerships. And it is further important that the seven winners be arranged in their proper order; that is, that the best man should not be placed near the middle of the list.

In making this selection, only a limited group of men are really in a position to decide upon the relative merits of the candidates. This group is composed of the retiring managers and the coaches. It is quite evident that the Executive Council, composed of three alumni who are entirely out of touch with the competitiors, of three members of the faculty who are acquainted only with the classroom work of the ass-managers, and of three undergraduates who have paid no particular attention to the competition, is not fitted to make the final decision in this matter, so important to the men who have competed.

Last year, (and we understand that the same system will be employed this year) the managers submitted written ballots of their preferences. The Executive Council tabulated these ballots and then voted themselves; the vote of the Executive Council was the deciding one.

Such a system is obviously a hold-over from the old days when a manager made his nominations personally to the Executive Council, which, acting in a judicial capacity, questioned the manager and cast the deciding vote. At present, however, the manager does not appear in person, he merely submits a written ballot. The judicial power of the Council is thereby destroyed, for unless it can question each manager individually, it obviously has no basis on which to over-ride the vote of the manager. The Council cannot tell by looking at a written ballot whether or not the voter has allowed any outside influences to affect his selection.

Two courses are open to the Executive Council, either of which should result in a just selection; either to act in a judicial capacity by questioning each manager concerning his nominations, or (and this seems to us the more logical method) let the ultimate decision lie in the vote of the managers and the coaches. But in the name of all that is fair do not let the final decision remain in the hands of a group of individuals entirely unacquainted with the situation.

TWENTY-TWO CANDIDATES FOR MANAGERSHIPS SIGN

To those who had hopes of Hamilton's continuing nearly the same system for handling the athletic managerial competition for 1926-27, the report that 22 men have already signed up to undertake such a project will come as good news. Although the number is not as large as that of the students who reported when this plan was first introduced two years ago, it is a substantial increase over this year's showing.

On the initiation of such a program in the fall of 1924 between 30 and 35 underclassmen answered the call. The marked decrease in tihs term's number of recruits and the threatened abolition of the D. A. M. Club gave rise to a new problem, how to keep "volunteers" coming out. Undoubtedly the new attractions offered to "scrubs" in the way of marked reductions in duties and other prospects have caused this increase in men.

On the other hand a consideration of the fact that the last two classes entering Hamilton have been the largest up to their times echoes a shrinkage of the percentage of students interested in athletic managerships. It seems likely that some of the 22 men who have signified their intention of competing will be forced to withdraw before the end. Perhaps further revisions in the system will become necessary, such for example, as the employment of several short competitions for the different seasons or for the various sports which the Hill affords.

The following men intend to enter the competition next fall: LeVan, Barns, Campbell, Crane, Ellison, G. Clark, Jr., Woolf, Combs, E. O. Smith, Sherman, Bremer, Orr, Tracy, Ake, Capps, Chapin, Duell, N. G. Russell, Jr., Mulcahy, Huested, Edwards, and W. J. Foley.

FROSH BASEBALL TEAM SWAMPED BY COLGATE

The Colgate freshman baseball team almost annihilated the Hamilton yearlings here last Tuesday afternoon. The score was 15-6. The Maroon players stored up hits and runs at will until they garnered a total of 13 safe bingles and 15 runs. The victors took advantage every time of the errors made by the Hamilton players. No less than 10 fumbles were charged against the losers who for the first three innings played ragged ball and could not seem to settle down.

Coppage, who started the game for Colgate, pitched excelent ball for the first two innings but in the third and fourth frames the Hamilton batters began to get busy and succeeded in touching the Colgate twirler for five hits. Coppage waes shown to the showers in favor of Gardner, who held the Buff and Blue to three hits for the remainder of the contest.

Cranston also pitched good ball in spite of the score that was piled up against his offerings. With good support in the first three innings he would have fared much better.

A home run by Smith, the Maroon shortstop, featured the contest. Kirk, Holt and Pithie led the attack for Colgate with two hits apiece, while Weston and Stevens for Hamilton each collected two hits. One of Weston's blows was a double in the second inning.

VARSITY BALL TEAM LOSES TO MAROON, 4-1

Colgate Wins Game Cut Short by Rain in Sixth Inning

The Hamilton batsmen were defeated by Colgate, last Wednesday in a game cut short by rain after six innings. The score was 4-1, but only two of Colgate's runs were earned, errors by the Buff and Blue infield accounting for two runs. Aside from these two or three costly bobbles, the Buff and Blue played good ball behind Knox, freshman pitcher, who pitched a remarkably fine game. Young Knox held the heavy-hitting Maroon sluggers to six hits, of which but three were real lusty blows.

Colgate scored first in the third, hits by Welch and Richardson, and errors by MacLean and Warren bringing over two counters. Hamilton came back strong in the fourth, bidding fair to tie up the game. Church, first man up, smacked a clean double, but was out on a fielder's choice, on Chatfield's attempted sacrifice, after Mac Lean had flied out. Chatfield stole second, and came home for the first and only Buff and Blue run on Warren's single. Pierce singled, and Hamilton seemed about to tie the score, but Sarcka tightened up and retired Worboys.

Colgate's last two runs came in the sixth and last frame, when hits by Adams and Clark, and an error by Church brought in two counters.

DR. PAUL C. SQUIRES, '17 PUBLISHES NEW MANUAL

The Princeton University Press has just published the "Examination Manual", 158 pages, of "A Universal Scale of Individual Performance Tests," by Paul C. Squires, '17, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Psychology in the University of Vermont. The second volume of this work is now in press and will present a detailed account of the scoring systems utilized in the studies of the Princeton and Vineland groups, and is devoted to the discussion of the results obtained from the application of the New Intelligence Scale. This work was done at Princeton University during the years 1923 to 1925 under an appropriation made by the Committee on Scientific Problems of Human Migration of the National Research Council.

Professor Squires lectured last summer in the University of Rochester, and will return there this summer to teach General Psychology, and the Present Day Tendencies in Psychology.

Professor Squires is the son of Dr. William H. Squires, '88, Professor of Philosophy at Hamilton. He is a member of Delta Upsilon.

you see it's like this-

Mere quantity in eating counts for little. Only the food you assimilate builds bodily health and strength. Beyond this point food can be actually harmful.

Shredded Wheat

is not only 100% digestible but furnishes all the BRAN, CARBOHYDRATES, PROTEINS, SALTS and VITAMINS of the good whole wheat, balanced as Nature intended for the highest degree of nutriment.

If you need energy, if you need roughage, if you desire new bodily health and mental vigor—EAT SHREDDED WHEAT EVERY DAY.

Week's Best Joke

To the first 10¼ classical students who can fathom the subtle humor in this gem, Carpe will award one indelible buttonhook. "Pitcher is the choice of the department for the title role in Aulularia." That's all right. Take your time.

Add Famous Farewell Addresses:

"Let me introduce to you the youngest president of the Borough of the Bronx." VACHEL BONX.

For Our "Rivals of Long Standing"

The "Colgate Banter" recently published a parody of "The New Yorker." In order to prepare the ground, free issues of "The New Yorker" were distributed to the fraternity houses. Wouldn't it have been a saving of money to have parodied the "American Magazine"?

FAMOUS FIRST WORDS (and in some cases last):

"I beg your pardon but haven't we met somewhere before?"

Unconscious Satire

From the Rhode Island State "Beacon": "Prom Week is comprised of three gala days that relieve the strain of the collegiate's busy life." They must be different in Rhode Island.

"Thanks for the lousy ride," remarked that original of all hoofers, Kirkland Katie, as she crawled out of the "Chaperone's one-hoss shay."

THERE may BE SOMETHING IN THIS

Dear Carp:

We may be wrong, but it seems to our feeble memory in all the addresses of quondam athletic heroes we have listened to, never has it been said that the big thing they learned out there in the sweat and the grime was to be a Good Loser. This disconcerting discovery leads us to urge that a Good Losers' Club be organized. Anybody should be eligible, even coaches.

As an inspirational chantey we suggest:

Heroes for Zeros
We fought for Oughts
We're the Good Losing Gang!
Can we be beat?
We eat Defeat!
Our only care is the chapel bell clang.

Something should be done about this.

Hopefully,
SLOE G.

Explained

Walter DeLaMare, according to Bob Rudd, represents the more intellectual trend in modern poetry. Does this, perchance, explain his Hamilton fiasco?

FINIS

"Here's where I come to my close," remarked Lady Godiva, as she came to the end of the automobile ride.

According to a recent census, nine women at the University of Denver say that they have never been kissed. No. gentlemen, there were no U of D coeds at Spring Party.

MERCHANT PRINCE RE-ELECTED

"Off again, on again, gone again, back again," were the terse words with which Hamilton's Merchant Prince described to Carpe's special reporter the recent fluctuations in faculty rulings. The tux-exchange is still open.

Pick a pipe and pack it with good old P. A.

TALK about "alliteration's artful aid" . . . the printer certainly raided the "p" box that trip. But let that go! The advice is just as serious and sound as though it were couched in the careful diction of an English prof.

Just get yourself a jimmy-pipe and fill the bowl to the brim with Prince Albert. Light up, and let the first fragrant whiff tell you that no other tobacco is like P. A.—or can be! Cool and sweet and fragrant, P. A. has everything a fellow ever wished for in a smoke.

P. A. can't bite your tongue or parch your throat. The Prince Albert process settled that in P. A.'s freshman year. Get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today. The first load-up will tell you why pipes are so fashionable among young men today.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

TWO RECORDS BROKEN IN MIDDLEBURY MEET

Track Team Loses 72 2-3 to 52 1-3 as Van Vleet and Brockway Star

Two college records were shattered last Saturday afternoon, when the Hamilton track team was defeated by Middlebury, 73 2-3 to 52 1-3 on Steuben Field. Van Vleet, by throwing the shot for a distance of 39 ft., 10 in., broke the former college record, which he had previously made, by over a foot. In the discus throw, Brockway shattered the former local record by more than two feet. He hurled the discus 119 ft., 10 in.

In the track events Cutter starred for Hamilton, winning first place in the 220 yard low hurdles and tying for first in the 120 yard high hurdles. Smith of Middlebury starred for the visiting team, taking first place in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Hamilton was at a loss when Baker was suddenly taken ill in the two mile event, Middlebury taking all three places. This was the only event in which the Buff and Blue did not place.

In the field events Brockway and Van Vleet showed their ability. Brockway took first place in the discus throw and the javelin, and Van Vleet captured first place in the shot put and second place in the high jump. Potter of the Blue and Whtie team starred in the field events, taking first place in the high jump, second in the shot put, and third in the discus.

Due to soft ground and a strong wind, all the events were slowed down considerably. The summary:

One Mile Run: 1, Witt, M; 2, Scovel, H; Vosburg, H. Time, 4:49.

440 Yard Dash: 1, Burrows, M; 2, Kirby, H; 3, Mann, H. Time 53:6.

880 Yard Dash: 1, Arnold, M; 2, Ooates, H; 3, Ahner, H. Time, 2:6:8.

What Is A Life Underwriter?

One who executes and delivers a life insurance policy. In other words, a person whose business it is to offer the known benefits of life insurance to individuals, to corporations, to partnerships, etc.

But further, the life underwriter is one who must convince those clients of the benefits offered. This means stimulating contact with human character, and with large affairs. Some underwriters prefer the game of character and deal mainly with individuals. Others prefer affairs; to them is open the great field of business insurance.

Furthermore, the business of life underwriting pays highly for initiative and ability.

And still more, the life underwriter offers to his client a commodity which has no risk in it, does not deteriorate, and adds no burden of mental worry. The life underwriter sells absolute security, the foundation of serenity of mind.

It is worth while to think these things over now and to remember them when, perhaps, you find yourself wrongly placed in whatever business you may have chosen.

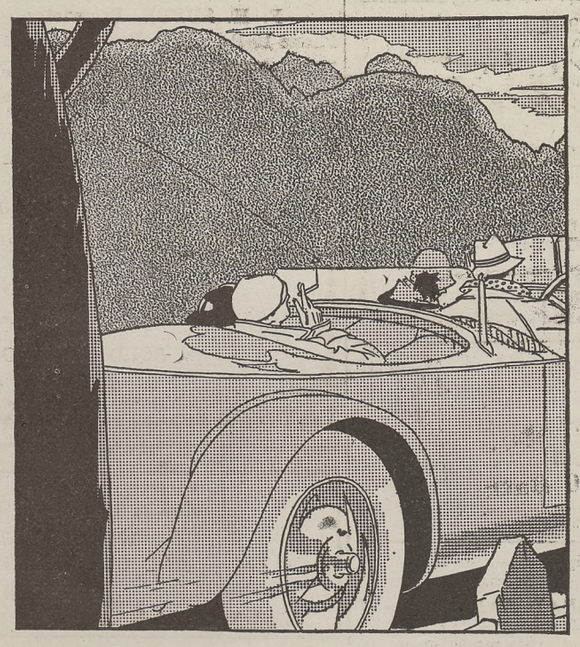
When silvery moonlight falls on town and field—and the long, joyous tour home is ready to begin
—have a Camel!

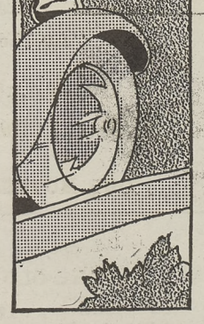


WHEN moonlight washes woodland and hills with platinum light. And the tour home is ready to begin—have a Camel!

For Camel makes every smooth tour smoother, adds of its own contentment to every delightful journey. Camels never tire your taste or leave a cigaretty after-taste. Pay what you will, you'll never get choicer tobaccos than those in Camels.

So this night as the forest-topped hills race by in moonlit processional. As the magic road curves through the colonnades of birches—have then the finest made, regardless of price.

Have a Camel!



Camels contain the very choicest tobaccos grown in all the world. Camels are blended by the world's most expert blenders. Nothing is too good for Camels. In the making of this one brand we concentrate the tobacco knowledge and skill of the largest organization of tobacco experts in the world. No other cigarette made is like Camels. They are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price.
